

TRAIL CONDITIONS UPDATE- May 6, 2017

Bently Heritage Trail:

The trail system is open and mostly dry. There are two short wet areas, one on the south loop and one on the middle loop, that are a scramble to get around. All beach spurs are currently under water. The river is rising so there may be other areas that will be ponding water.

Clear Creek Trail:

Trail is all open

Fay-Luther/Jobs Peak Ranch Trail System:

Trails are all open

Genoa Trail System:

*The West Fork Trail and East Brockliss Loop at River Fork Ranch are under water again and the trails are closed.

*The upper Sierra Canyon creek crossing on the Genoa Loop is difficult to cross at this time and is not advised! The current is extremely swift and the crossing rocks are just under water.

* The upper 2.5 miles of the Sierra Canyon Trail is still under snow.

Pinyon Trail:

Trail is all open
